

Conference for Mercy Higher Education: Mission Officers – Best Practices

Title:

Kudos Award

Summary:

The Kudos Award, sponsored by Staff Council's Professional Development Committee, is given monthly to a staff member who performs a specific event, an act of kindness, or an act that exceeds their day-to-day job responsibilities.

Goals:

The goal of this award is to recognize a staff member who performs an act of kindness and/or goes beyond expectations to help another employee.

Description:

The Kudos Award is presented monthly to a staff member who performs an act of kindness and/or goes above and beyond expectations of their job responsibilities to help someone else. Award recipients can be full or part-time staff members. Employees submit their nominations with the reason for nominating the person to the Professional Development Committee. The committee reviews the nominations and selects a winner. An employee can only receive the award once within a 12-month period. Members of the Professional Development Committee may nominate another staff member. Members of the Professional Development Committee cannot be an award recipient.

Successes:

The Kudos award recipient receives a plaque and a gift card from the Professional Development Committee.
